A. T. H. S. Musicians Compete in Class A; Get 10 First Places

Faulty Enrollment Estimate Makes School Compete in Wrong Class

Antioch's High School band will have to compete in Class A rating this year although the enrollment doesn't warrant it.

Last year when an estimated enrollment of 560 was reported to the Illinois State Band Assn. local school officials were unaware that the number moved the school into a higher bracket with schools having enrollments 550 to 1,500.

The expected enrollment failed to materialize and now A.T.H.S. with an enrollment of but 530 will have to buck the stronger competition nevertheless. Schools in Class A include Zion, Glenbrook and Benet.

Antioch will go directly to the Northern State contest at DeKalb, the solos and ensembles playing on May 3, and the band on May 4.

The high school received 10 first division ratings in the district contest at Evanston Saturday. This includes three ensembles and seven solos. There were nine seconds and six thirds—a total of 25 entries.

Plans for the school concert tonight (Thursday) were complicated by the excellent record Antioch musicians made at the district music contest. Earlier concert advertising had stated that the solo or ensemble receiving the highest contest rating would be featured at the concert. Seven Antioch soloists and three ensembles won top "first" ratings—enough for a concert by themselves. It was decided to have only the ensembles perform at the band concert because more students would be able to participate.

Specials at the concert will be the trumpet trio: Jay Cribb, Bryan Cain, and Ron Mack, accompanied by Lynn Bolton; the clarinet quartet: Lynn Bolton, Celia Hojem, Sue Romer, and Barbara Yates; and the horn quartet: Sonya Pickus, Nancy Wetterberg, Bill Cremin and Sally January. Popular style music will be presented by the pep band.

Other winners of "first" ratings include Steve Aschenbrenner, flute solo; Sue Romer, clarinet solo; Celia Hojem, clarinet solo; Jay Cribb, cornet solo; Bryan Cain, cornet solo; Lois Wagner, bassoon solo; and Sonya Pickus, french horn solo.

Red Cross Drive Gets Under Way After Meeting

The Annual Red Cross drive for renewal of membership and other donations started last Friday following the meeting of Thursday night at the Rescue Squad station, when twenty-five workers attended and heard Arthur Jackson, as head of the Red Cross for Lake county, from the Waukegan office.

Jackson was well received in the face of many questions tossed at him from the ladies, and he in turn did a splendid job of satisfying all present with the assistance of a movie and his sixteen years experience in Red Cross here and abroad.

Residential areas in the village are being checked this week and in some cases the solicitors find no one at home. In order to save time these persons can make their contributions to either bank in Antioch.

There are some subdivisions in Antioch township that do not have any captains as yet, therefore any volunteers from subdivisions wishing to assist in this campaign will be welcomed by calling either Mrs. J. W. Kopriwa, chairman, or John L. Horan, co-chairman. The drive will continue for the rest of March.

Skills of Scout Program to Be Shown to Public in Troop Booths

The eighth annual Lakeside Girl Scout Council exhibit will be underway beginning at 3:30 p. m. Saturday, at the Antioch High School, and continuing until 10:00 p. m. that evening.

The purpose of this exhibit is to promote greater public relations between Girl Scouting and the communities, and it will enable the Council to show the skills and knowledge the Scouts have acquired through the Girl Scout program.

Besides the many exhibits to be displayed by the troops, there will be program presentation by various Brownie troops commencing at 4 p. m. and an Intermediate program at 8 p. m.

Points of interest will include a style show; a booth where Scouts may obtain camp information and adults may register as counselors; a special exhibit by Brownie troop No. 61 of Fox Lake including a letter to them from Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, and another from Princess Grace of Monaco; a skit by Intermediate Troop No. 39 of Lake Villa soon to be heard of Radio Station WKRS, and a special Juliette Low World Friendship Fund presentation by all troops.

This exhibit is open to the public free of charge, and everyone is cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be available in the school cafeteria from 5 to 7 for those wishing to remain for the evening program.

Notify Correspondents of Your Exact Address At Once Postmaster Kufalk Tells Residents

"Mr. Barry's Etchings" Title of Senior Class Play Set for April 5 & 6

Antioch citizens should start notifying their correspondents of their correct street and house number at once so that they may get their mail by home delivery without delay starting April 1, Postmaster Roy I. Kufalk urged today.

"Mr. Barry's Etchings", a comedy in three acts, will be presented on the evenings of April 5 and 6 at the Antioch High School, by the senior class.

The play centers around Mr. Barry, a bachelor who lives in the stable, in order to escape from his sister and her children. Barry, who is famous for his etchings, starts making 50 dollar bills, but this only leads to a mass of comical complications.

The part of Mr. Barry is played by Frank Albert. Others in the cast are: Frank Dorner, Judy Horton, Lynn Gray, Lou Seyfarth, Barbara Heilenthal, Lynn Bolton, Celia Hojem, Jack Elliott, Elmer Oelkers, Dave Valkenaar, Judy Hosteler and Jay Cribb.

Miss Patricia Howard is the faculty director.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the senior class, or at the door.

Camp Expansion Fund Reaches $111,142 As Early Reports Arrive

The Boy Scout Camp Expansion Fund Campaign reached $111,142 early this week as Scouting Unit teams began reporting the participation of parents in their campaign to raise $320,000 with which to develop needed camping facilities for the communities served through the North Shore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. The campaign will continue until all parents and friends of Scouting have had the opportunity to participate, with a Council-wide report scheduled for March 11.

Contributions include $64,049 from special gifts, $24,556 from local industries, and the balance from Scout parents. These represent returns to date from only 30% of special gifts prospects and 12% of Scout parents.

"The response of all to develop needed facilities has been very gratifying," stated Milton H. Gray, General Campaign, "and early reports are encouraging. However, to reach our minimum goal complete coverage of all special gifts prospects, business and professional people, and Scout parents is needed by the hundreds of volunteer workers participating in the campaign in each of the 40 communities served by the North Shore Area Council. We are hopeful of receiving several large gifts of money or land for camp sites and all efforts are now being pointed to the Council-wide report on March 11."

Wisconsin To Vote on D. S. Time
Antioch neighbors in Wisconsin will go to the polls April 2 to vote on the proposal to establish daylight savings time during the summer months. If the state approves, and it is an all-state election, shopping hours will be simplified so far as Antioch is concerned.

Bellingsroth Gardens is internationally famous for one of the world's largest camellia collections, for mass blooming azaleas and for year round beauty. It is owned by a non-profit foundation set up for the benefit of three colleges and two churches.

Grade School Board Sets March 26 For $394,000 Bond Sale

Five Candidates File for Two Posts on Board of Education

March 26 was set as the date for the opening of bids on the $394,000 bond issue of the Antioch Grade School district's building project by members of the Board of Education Tuesday night.

Letters to more than 50 bond houses, banks, and investment brokers were sent out announcing the sale and many bids are expected.

In the meantime the architect is working on plans and specifications which he hopes to complete soon so that bids may be sought on the construction job.

An attempt will be made to have part of the new building at Loon and Deep Lake rds. ready by autumn.

There are now five candidates for the two positions on the school board. Harold Cardiff and Charles Wertz whose terms expire, are seeking re-election. Arthur Letkey and Sam Lombardo of Oakwood Knolls and Elroy Anderson of Felters Subdivision are the other candidates.

A.T.H.S. Variety Show Set for Next Thursday

Antioch High School will present its annual Variety show at 8 p. m. Mar. 21. Students will present their acts in the auditorium. These acts received high ratings when they were presented before the student body in four separate talent shows.

Entertainment will include the hilarious Nairobi trio and the Hawaiian hula dancers, just "out of the tropics". Jim Hogan and Forrest Stahmer will soon have the audience rocking in its seats when they start pounding the piano and beating the drums. A serious touch will be added when Sue Romer plays "Autumn Leaves" and "Tenderly." The audience will be sure to enjoy the other acts, such as the modern and 1920 dances, and, of course, Rock and Roll. Also, the teenagers will be given some tips on dating. These are only a few examples of the many talented and hilarious acts to be presented.

Northern Illinois Gas Company Seeks New Natural Gas Pipeline

Marvin Chandler, president of the Northern Illinois Gas Company, speaking at a press dinner at Martinetti's, Crystal Lake recently, said that his company has applied to the Federal Power Commission to build a natural gas pipeline from Colorado to this area.

This pipeline, when finished, possibly by 1958, would supply enough additional gas to furnish most of the 175,800 home owners in this area, who have applications on file, for gas heating permits.

In the past ten years the demand for gas has exceeded the supply despite the efforts of the gas company. During 1956 alone 37,511 new gas customers, 96 per cent of which were residential, were connected to the 800 miles of pipeline maintained by the gas company. At the end of 1956 there were 562,880 customers supplied by Northern Illinois Gas company.

Important Underground Storage

On Wednesday, Jan. 16, 1957, a record 4,610,000 therms of gas were used. From pipelines only 3,257,000 therms were available. This meant a shortage of 1,353,000 therms.

Herscher underground storage, capable of storing over 58,000,000 therms of gas, together with other facilities of the gas company made up that deficit.

Mr. Chandler said that every effort is being made to expand the storage of natural gas and propane to meet peak demands.

Good Questions

The meat packers are often the butt of criticism, on the theory that they make too much profit at the expense of livestock producers on the one hand and meat consumers on the other. This is probably an unavoidable state of affairs, human nature being what it is. For, obviously, the producers want top prices for their livestock and the consumers want low-priced meat—two desires that are mighty difficult to reconcile.

The packers' profit story deserves telling—and it deserves public attention too.

Over a thirty year period—1925-1954—average earnings in the packing business came to 95/100 of one cent per sales dollar. In 1955 there was a tiny variation—the profit averaged nine-tenths of one cent per sales dollar. By way of comparison, profits of all U. S. manufacturers in the same year averaged 5.4 cents on each dollar of sales.

That brings up a logical question. If packers are able to keep, as profit, less than a cent out of each dollar they take in, where does all the rest of the money go? The experience of one leading packer last year is typical. This particular company had profit of six-tenths of one cent per dollar of sales. The rest of the dollar was spent this way: 70.1 cents for livestock and other farm products; 15 cents for wages and salaries; 5.7 cents for fuel, power, containers and other such supplies; 2.9 cents for transportation; 1 cent for taxes, and 4.7 cents for other expenses, including rent, insurance, advertising, etc.

Now another good question arises: What keeps profits so low? The answer is that 3,000 commercial slaughterers are competing among each other for the business—and intense competition in any enterprise always holds profits to a minimum figure.

If Fire Strikes

What would you do if fire destroyed your house?

There is a superficially easy answer to that question. You'd take the insurance money and rebuild. It would be a nuisance, of course, but you wouldn't be out of pocket.

The trouble with this idea is that, in a vast number of cases, it simply isn't true. Legions of homeowners think they are adequately insured against fire and related hazards when they think about the matter at all—but the fact is that their coverage is woefully inadequate.

A simple statistic tells the story. Since the end of the war, government and other tabulations show, average building costs have just about doubled. That is generally true of practically everything inside the walls of a house—furnishings, clothing, appliances and so on. Yet, according to insurance studies, a great many people have unwittingly failed to increase their coverage to compensate. If fire strikes, in those cases, there simply won't be enough insurance money to begin to pay for rebuilding.

The remedy for the individual home owner is to consult with his local professional insurance agent or broker. This man knows values and costs, and he knows just how much insurance each of his clients should carry. And he knows how to fit a fire policy into the total insurance picture.

"Asinine Position"

Bruce Gustin, writing in the Denver Post, has some blunt words to say about the excise taxes on transportation, which now amount to 10 per cent on passenger fares and 3 per cent on freight shipments.

These taxes were imposed during World War II, primarily as emergency measures to discourage unnecessary traveling and shipping. The idea was they would end with the war. But they're still on the books. By contrast, similar taxes in World War I were repealed a few years after that conflict ended. In World War II, Canada also had a transportation tax—and repealed it in 1949.

Mr. Gustin writes: "At a time when transportation facilities are adequate and their use should be encouraged to reduce congestion on public highways the government is in the asinine position of discouraging this by penalizing people who do patronize the railroads, air-lines and bus lines. . . . A vicious feature of these federal transportation taxes is the way they build up. The rates remain the same but they are a fixed percentage of the passenger fare or freight rate and every time these are increased the cost of the tax goes up." He also points out that the freight tax is a multiple tax, levied and collected several times on the same article, in that it applies to raw materials as well as finished products.

Finally, it should be remembered that this isn't a tax on the carriers concerned. It is a tax on the user—on every person who travels or uses freight service. So it hits everyone, directly or indirectly.

Grassroots Opinion

DUBLIN, GA., COURIER-HERALD: "The American way of life is faith in God. Upon this foundation was placed the United States Constitution. Its chief purpose was to create a structure of government to protect the individual freedom of citizens, to give the citizenry all power over the government. Many Americans carelessly accept our government as a 'democracy.' Actually it is a constitutional Republic. . . . Our Constitution protects rights of minorities which sheer democracy would permit to be taken away by majority vote. This is an extremely important feature of our constitutional republic."

SYCAMORE, OHIO, THE SYCAMORE LEADER: "State Legislatures should never adopt programs which would, in effect, extend public money to private schools and colleges. Control always follows money, in time, and we hope our private institutions of learning will remain free and independent of all governmental control, and that this separation can survive."

VAN NUYS, CALIF., NEWS: "Straight from records of the New York Stock Exchange: Two out of three people who own common stock have income over $7500 a year. . . . Nine out of ten stocks listed on the N. Y. Stock Exchange paid dividends last year, and more than 300 of them have paid dividends every year from 25 to 108 years. And remember, when you own stock you are a part-owner, and if it grows and prospers you grow and prosper with it."

CARLSBAD, N. M., CURRENT-ARGUS: "The law, which went into effect in September, 1954, makes espionage in peacetime punishable by death, as well as during wartime. . . . Conviction and sentencing of more people who would overthrow the U. S. Government, or contribute to its downfall, might encourage others with the same idea."

Demand for Grads

At All-Time High

Demand for college graduates by industry, business and the professions this year will exceed anything known in history, a survey prepared by the University of Illinois Placement Services reveals.

As a mid-west university with approximately 5,000 graduating seniors each year, the University of Illinois provides an accurate picture of the college placement situation, Robert Calvert, Jr., coordinating placement officer, states.

Illinois graduates of the last year will earn an estimated $14,000,000 in their first 12 months on the job, indicating significance of a major university's contribution to the nation's economic picture, Calvert said.

Chicago Motor Club
Opposes Gasoline Tax

Illinois members of the Chicago Motor Club have been asked to write or wire their state senators and representatives to oppose "any tax to subsidize the Chicago Transit Authority, or any diversion of highway funds for any purpose."

The request is made in the March issue of Motor News, the club's newspaper, which is largely devoted to the gas controversy. In a message to members, Chas. M. Hayes, club president, says:

"Our view is that taxation on anyone or anything for the purpose of subsidizing any form of transportation is wrong."

"Any form of taxation to subsidize the CTA would be a dangerous precedent. Once a tax is imposed on the motorist for this purpose, it could become a never-ending proposition."

Hayes says that while the "subsidy proposal" is still in the discussion stage, CTA officials have "suggested several schemes to the governor and other officials, one of which is a statewide increase of the 5-cents-a-gallon tax to 6 cents." He adds:

"The CTA also proposes to change both state and federal laws to permit the use of highway funds to finance mass transportation."

Motor News points out that "similar schemes to divert motor fuel tax funds have been attempted in other states." But it says that "when given an opportunity to express themselves on gas tax diversion, the record shows that almost invariably the people have voted overwhelmingly in favor of constitutional safeguards."

The motor club asserts that from their inception, highway user taxes have been generally recognized as special use or benefit taxes. It quotes the author of the first gasoline tax law—passed in Oregon in 1919—as having said: "This tax ought to be considered as belonging to the road program and not diverted to other purposes. We might as well tax sugar to build roads as to tax gasoline to run the government."

Motor News says the same principle is made "crystal clear" in the Hayden-Cartwright amendment of 1934 to the basic federal highway aid law, and that if highway-user taxes are diverted, planning for Illinois' proposed highway program could be carried out on only a "piecemeal basis."

"This," says the motor club, "could only result in impaired efficiency and waste of the taxpayers' money," concludes the club:

"Federal law provides that up to one-third of federal aid may be withheld if the state's highway user taxes are not spent for highway purposes. That means, of course, that diversion of gasoline taxes to subsidize the CTA could jeopardize the entire Illinois highway program."

This week, as we celebrate our 25th Birthday, Jewel Stores are modern, much bigger . . . but that same old-fashioned friendliness of 25 years ago is still there. It comes from people who are sincerely interested in you and want you to keep coming back week after week as you have been.

Won't you join us in our Birthday celebration this weekend?

WILLIAM N. DEERING ATTENDS STUDY CAMP

Crawfordsville, Ind. — William N. Deering, son of Mrs. David Deering, 1055 Victoria St., was one of 27 Wabash College students attending the first in this year's series of senior study camps last week.

Fifty seniors are participating this year in the study camp program offered by this small liberal arts college for men.

The senior study camp is a five-day session at Turkey Run Park, consisting of study in the mornings, recreation in the afternoons, and formal discussion in the evenings. Faculty members are present for the evening discussions.

Senior study camp has been a voluntary part of the Wabash man's education for over 25 years. One of the purposes of the camp is to allow seniors an extra time for study for comprehensive examinations which are administered in May. A three-day version of the camp is open to sophomores during the Fall semester.

Mrs. Morris Pickus To Head Cancer Fund Drive

LeRoy Horton Attends Brother's Wedding as Best Man at Bristol

The American Cancer Society's educational and fund-raising Crusade during the month of April in Antioch will be headed by Mrs. Morris Pickus, 988 Victoria St., it has been announced by John Schneider, Lake County Drive chairman.

The local quota has been set at $675, the same as last year. In the county, a goal of $40,000 has been set, an increase of about $2,500 over last year.

The increase represents Lake County's share of the national goal of $30,000,000.

"The goal is larger in 1957," it was explained, "because of the rising over-all incidence of cancer in this country. This continues to be due largely to the fact that the span of human life continues to increase. People are living longer, and thus reach an age when cancer is most likely to strike."

"The picture is not all dark, however. There have been encouraging reductions of deaths from certain forms of cancer, due primarily to newly applied techniques for the detection and treatment of the disease."

In 1955 it was estimated that 150,000 Americans were saved from cancer. Ten years ago only 80,000 were saved annually. Or to put it another way, ten years ago only one out of every four Americans who got cancer was saved. In 1956 the ratio improved to one-in-three.

"That is wonderful news from the cancer battlefield. But we must guard against complacency. Cancer is still the Number Two disease killer. It is striking more people, but primarily that is because they are living longer."

To meet the situation, and to save many more lives, the chairman pointed out, more funds are needed. And the money collected will be used for three main purposes—to provide more and more research support as scientists uncover and follow up promising clues to the final answers about cancer; to augment public and professional education concerning the disease; and to give additional services to patients.

The saving of 150,000 lives is, in part, due to the Educational program of the Society which publicizes cancer's seven danger signals and encourages early and regular physical examinations. This program reaches its peak during the April drive for funds, but continues on a twelve month basis throughout the year.

Co-chairman of the April Crusade will be Mrs. A. N. Stanich of Ossmond avenue.

Antioch Methodist Church Continues Lenten Services With Bible Study, Prayer

The Antioch Methodist church will continue its Lenten emphasis upon growing in spiritual life through corporate worship, daily prayer and Bible reading, and a group study of Paul's letters.

There will be two services of worship Sunday—at 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. The Rev. Howard C. Benson will lead the study group of "Paul's Letters to Local Churches" at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. The discussion will be on Paul's idea of the church and its mission. This group is open to all interested persons.

The intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship invited seventh and eighth grade pupils to their meeting at 7:30 p. m. Friday. The youth will share in a box social.

The High School fellowship will have a dance Saturday night at the church. Their regular meeting will be held at 6 p. m. Sunday.

This group is planning to give enough money through Lenten daily offerings to send a village boy or girl in India to one of the Methodist mission schools. The cost is approximately $70 for one year.

Auxiliary Transacted Much Business in Its Meeting Last Friday

Antioch unit, American Legion Auxiliary transacted much business in its meeting Friday, March 8. Delegates from the Unit to the District meeting held in Waukegan Feb. 13, gave reports on the meeting. The massed colors (of all the Units) on the platform was most impressive and the talks by the two Hungarian refugees were very interesting.

Birthday Party at Downey
The unit rehabilitation chairman, Carolyn Horan, gave a report on the birthday party given the patients in the Women's ward by Antioch, Winthrop Harbor and Lake Zurich units on March 5. Games were played and refreshments and cigarettes were given the guest patients. Mrs. Horan also reported having taken 30 pounds of carpet rags for rug making, to the hospital. Antioch unit voted monetary contributions to the Heart fund and the Red Cross. Carolyn Horan is chairman of both drives in Antioch.

Attends Meeting
Mrs. Del Jahnke, a past president of the Unit, who has been ill for the past several months, was able to attend the unit meeting and was given a most hearty welcome by the members present.

Assemble Poppies
Poppy making is in full swing at Downey hospital and members from the various units in the district go to the hospital on Mondays and Thursdays to assist the patients in the work. Vera Horton, Helen Kiesler and Addie Horton were at the hospital Monday and helped with the assembling of the poppies. Two thousand flowers were made that day.

Patriotic Conference
Approximately 1,500 members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Illinois, representing the 933 units, will attend the 28th Annual Patriotic conference on Thursday, March 21, in Chicago. The all day conference will convene at 9:30 a. m. in the mural room of the Morrison hotel with Mrs. Louis F. Ladky of Chicago, the state president, presiding. Highlights of the meeting will be on Americanism, National Security and Civil Defense. Mrs. Willard Peterson of Victoria, state vice-president and Americanism chairman; Mrs. Richard Murphy of Chicago, state national security chairman; and Mrs. Joseph Vogrin of Chicago, Civil Defense chairman are in charge of these conference programs.

Lost: Perfectly Good Roast
Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cramer of 5759 Morgan st., Chicago, said to be visiting in the Antioch area, called Chicago police to their aid Sunday when Mrs. Cramer remembered she had left a roast in the oven with the heat turned on.

The Englewood station police broke a door glass to get into the apartment, and removed the burning meat from the stove before other apartment dwellers had a chance to turn in a fire alarm. Just who they were visiting here was not revealed.

The Electric dryer is fully automatic, fume-free, fast and thrifty!

Poor father! If they had an electric dryer he'd have a dozen clean, dry diapers by now. Baby-soft, clean-smelling—the way they always dry in an electric.

Nearest thing there is to sunshine. Electric heat is clean, dry, radiant heat. Fume-free. So everything you dry electrically comes out smelling sweet as clover.

Electric dryers are all fully automatic, and just 6¢ worth of electricity will dry a big load.

Take a look at the new electric dryers soon. You'll notice that all the "no-vent" dryers are electric. (So your laundry area stays clean, dry and comfortable.) Are you listening, father?

Big Saving—ask your dealer about our Share-the-Cost Installation Plan.

It's the low-cost way to get the modern 100-amp home wiring you need for today's electric living appliances.

If you own an electric range, you save up to $25 on a new dryer! In fact if you have any 240-volt appliance your home probably has modern wiring already. This means the complete, installed price of your new electric dryer will be less than any other kind.

Just 6¢ will dry a big load electrically!

Two-thirds of the Car Buyers Will Finance

More than 4,000,000 people, or nearly two-thirds of new-car buyers, will borrow money to purchase the estimated 6,500,000 new cars to be sold this year, if sales predictions come true. Since credit is costlier and scarcer, don't be careless with it, warn the editors of Changing Times.

The price you pay for money to finance a car varies with the age of the car, where you live and the lender you deal with. Today, a car and all that goes with it costs more, making every potential economy that much more important.

This year, you will pay approximately 6 per cent discount to finance a new car. That means $6 a year for each $100 you borrow. To finance a $1,000 balance over two years, you would sign up to repay $1,120 in 24 monthly installments. Used-car rates are usually higher.

There is plenty of variation, however. Bankers estimate that most bank loans for new cars this year will cost between 5 per cent and 6 per cent discount. Sales-finance people guess that between 6 per cent and 7 per cent will be the most common finance-company range. Rates vary from one bank to another, from one finance company to another.

Some eastern cities people with established credit can finance a new car for as little as 3 per cent or 4 per cent discount. Elsewhere used-car buyers may pay as much as 15 per cent.

The cost of a car loan is almost always quoted either as a percentage discount rate or as a finance charge of so many dollars. A discount rate is not a true interest rate. Multiplying the discount rate by the amount you want to borrow by the number of years the loan will run tells how much you will pay for the credit. But since you repay in installments, you actually are borrowing a smaller sum each succeeding month, and so the true interest rate is nearly twice the discount rate.

You can use either discount rate or dollar costs as a quick basis for comparison when shopping for credit. You know, for example, that a 6 per cent loan will be half again as expensive as a 4 per cent loan. But it is always best to reduce every proposition to its exact dollar cost.

Keep these rules in mind when shopping for credit:

Don't make the mistake that so many people do of thinking of the car's price only as so much down and so much a month. The price of the car is the total you pay down plus the total of the payments you will make.

Make the down payment just as big as you possibly can. The more you pay down, the less you must finance, the less interest you will pay, the less the car will cost you and the lower your monthly payments will be.

Moreover, if you try to finance too large a proportion of the sales price, you will find yourself owing more than your car is worth for many months—and that doesn't make sense for you or the lender either.

You should try to put at least one-third down. If you try to go as low as 25 per cent, you may have trouble getting your loan—or wind up with a risky deal.

Look around and find out what you can get. Put down the costs and compare them. Pick the deal most advantageous to you, all things considered.

How College Students Pay Their Tuition

Most college undergraduates receive about half of their expenses from the current income of their parents, according to a recent survey reported in the March issue of Changing Times.

All in all 15,000 college students in over 100 colleges where expenses average $1,600 a year were questioned. About 11,000 of this group receive an average of $840 from their parents.

Two-thirds of the men and half the women earn an average of $890 each year (including summers.) Four out of ten students get an average of $765 from long-term savings.

More than a fifth get some form of scholarship. The average is about $430 for men, $260 for women.

Of the 15,000 undergraduates, only some 1,100 borrowed money. Fewer than a thousand received veterans benefits.

Easter Seal Campaign
In Lake Villa to Be
From Mar. 15-Apr. 21

The Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary of Lake Villa will sponsor the 1957 Easter Seal campaign to aid crippled children. Judge L. Eric Carey, county chairman for the annual campaign, announced today.

The auxiliary unit, headed by Mrs. C. E. McCarthy, president, will spearhead the annual appeal in Lake Villa, leading efforts to maintain and promote greater services for the crippled.

The 1957 appeal is scheduled March 15 to April 21. Goal for the county campaign is $25,000 which Judge Carey said will be needed in 1957 if crippled children are to receive the care necessary for their rehabilitation.

In Lake Villa, the 80 member auxiliary unit, now 2½ years old, already has begun work on the campaign. About 20 members of the unit have begun the task of addressing 1,500 envelopes.

About 80 per cent of the funds raised during the campaign remain in the county to finance services. The remainder goes to help support a national program of service, education and research.

TAX FACTS

"Next year's property tax bills on Illinois homes will sky-rocket if present tax rate limitation laws are repealed by the 70th General Assembly," warned the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois today. These laws, enacted in 1951, set up the machinery by which the maximum permissible tax rate limit for funds of local governments were fixed by local action instead of by State law as in the past. Thus, a recurring headache at every session of the General Assembly since the enactment of the 100 per cent assessment laws in 1945 has been cured.

Changes in rate limits have been possible since 1951 by means of referendum. This is as it should be. It is good for local government to have to prove its case to the taxpayer when it desires more money to spend. Such a system maintains balance between local government and taxpayers.

Now that "balance" is being threatened. A bill is being readied for the General Assembly to repeal the tax rate limitation laws. The result of such a bill would lift the lid from the taxpayer's protection. It is a matter of simple arithmetic.

Using the county general fund for example, a few cases give the result. The general fund limit of DuPage county would increase from 4.6 cents per $100 of valuation to 12½ cents per $100 of valuation, an increase of 172 per cent; Grundy, from 6.8 cents to 12½ cents per $100 of valuation, an increase of 84 per cent; LaSalle, from 7½ to 12½ cents, an increase of 67 per cent; Macon, from 6½ cents to 12½ cents, an increase of 82 per cent; Sangamon, from 7½ to 12½ cents, an increase of 67 per cent; and Saline, from 6.3 cents to 12½ cents, an increase of 98 per cent.

In a very few counties—those whose ratios of local assessments to full value were above 50 per cent previous to the 100 per cent assessment laws—the opposite would be true. For instance, the Calhoun County general fund would decrease from 14½ to 12½ a decrease of 14 per cent; Pope County general fund would fall from 13.4 cents to 12½ cents, a decrease of 7 per cent.

The Taxpayers' Federation will work hard and long to prevent the repeal of the tax rate limitation laws. Increases can be voted under the laws. "Consent of the taxed" is just as important in the 20th century as it was in Boston tea party days.

Thirty famous fishing experts, under the editorial leadership of Bruce R. Tuttle, combined their talents in the book "The Standard Book of Fishing." Every phase of the angler's art is covered, including bait, tackle, identification of the catch, camping and boat trips, and where to fish in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

Ray P. Holland describes every kind of wing shot for every kind of game bird in the book, "Scatter-gunning." The best methods for hunting game birds in the uplands and in the marshes, the gun, the hunting dog, decoys and when and where to hunt are thoroughly discussed in this excellent volume for the sportsman. Both of the above books are recent additions to the Antioch Township Library were given in memory of George L. Bacon.

Of all the many ways to decorate a home growing plants offer the greatest individuality and beauty. Jean Hershey's book, "Garden in Your Window," describes the cultivation of house plants from the "cast iron aspidistra to the frail orchid. "Garden in Your Window" was presented to the library in memory of Mrs. Gertrude Dunning.

Lake County Quota Is
$7,950,000 Savings Bonds

Lake County has been assigned a quota for sales of E and H United States Savings Bonds of $7,950,000, for the year 1957, according to word received from James E. Brown of Waukegan and Philip L. Speidel of Lake Forest, general co-chairmen of the Savings Bonds Committee.

Walter J. Lozier, Acting State Director of the U. S. Savings Bond Division of the Treasury Department announced that the quota for the state has been set at $444,000.00. "Through the efforts of hundreds of active volunteers in the state," Mr. Lozier said, "Illinois has a very good chance to exceed the assigned quota this year. During and since World War II, large groups of Savings Bonds volunteers, bankers, industrialists, labor leaders, newspapermen, radio and TV station personnel, as well as school officials, agricultural groups and many others, have served to keep Illinois in a leading position among large industrial states in percentage of quota achieved. They can point with pride to their past performance, and look forward to an even greater sales record in the months ahead."

4-H Week Expected
To Enroll 1,000 in
Lake County Clubs

It was estimated that approximately 1,000 4-H club members of Lake county would enroll with the more than two million other 4-H'ers throughout the United States during National 4-H club week, March 2 to 9. Enrollment cards were sent to 4-H club members who were enrolled in a project last year. They were urged to organize their clubs during the week and pick their projects for the year.

Home Economics 4-H leaders have been invited to an organization Training School on Friday, March 15, to be held from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m., at the Libertyville Methodist church. Miss Florence Klimmehue, University of Illinois 4-H Staff Specialist, will be the speaker. Plans will be made for County Training Schools and 4-H events for the spring and summer season.

The 4-H projects the girls might study in Home Economics Clubs this years are as follows:

Clothing: Beginning, "You Learn to Sew"; advanced, "You Make Your Own Clothes" and Buying Clothing."

Foods: Beginning, "You Learn to Bake"; "A. B. C.'s of Food"; Intermediate: "Adventures in Cooking"; "It's Fun to Cook"; Advanced, "Plan and Prepare Meals—Meat, Poultry, Fish; "Plan and Prepare Meals—Pastry"; "Yeast Breads in Your Meals"; "Preservation—Canning, Freezing"; "Outdoor Meals."

Room Improvement: "Flower Arrangement"; "Study of Pictures"; "Table Covers for Dining"; "The Five-Year Room Plan" for older girls.

Those wishing to join a club or organize a new club may do so by contacting the County Home Economics Extension Office at 355 North Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville. (Phone LI 2-4412).

Illinois Oil Wells
A decrease in Illinois oil field drilling during February was offset by increased secondary recovery from existing wells, according to the monthly report of the State Geological Survey. Estimated production for February was 6,519,000 barrels, or 233,000 barrels daily.

Three new oil pools, four extensions to pools, and one new gas field were found as a result of drilling in February.
